

DEEDS OF A DEVIL

He Mutilates a Woman in a Horrible Way,

DISMEMBERING HER BODY

The Crime and Its Author Detected—The Fiend Thought to Be Another "Jack the Ripper."

GLASGOW, Scot., Oct. 11.—The most horrible murder in the criminal history of this city was committed last night at West Lodge, a villa on the Albert road in Pollokshields, on the outskirts of Glasgow. A woman, still unidentified, was mutilated after the method of "Jack the Ripper." She was dismembered and the pieces of her body were buried in the villa garden. McEwan, the gardener, who doubtless is guilty of the crime, has disappeared.

West Lodge is one of the finest suburbs of Glasgow and is surrounded by a garden some 125 feet deep on every side. McEwan, with the assistance of a woman, lived in a separate house, and when not busy at the villa he did odd jobs in the neighborhood. He is a native of county Down, Ireland, is about 39 years old, and although occasionally a heavy drinker, has been a good reputation. He is a man of great physical strength.

At 6 o'clock this morning McDougall knocked at McEwan's door to wake him as he had done for the last few years. McEwan responded with unusual promptness. "All right, Tom; I won't get up yet, I am tired." McDougall went away and worked in the garden until 9 o'clock when he returned to arouse McEwan. His knocks were not answered, and he forced open the door. He found the walk, ceiling, furniture and floor spattered profusely with blood. The clothes from the two beds were scattered over the floor and were sprinkled with blood. Red finger marks streaked the side of one of the beds and the door. There was not a piece of furniture or article of clothing which was not blood-stained. McDougall ran downstairs, hatless and crying in his terror to the police station and told his story.

Four Fresh Made Graves.

After fortifying him with brandy the police took him to West Lodge with them. From the garden the following bloody track to four fresh made mounds in the garden. In a flower bed, from which the plants had been removed they found, about two feet under ground, the mutilated head and unjointed arm of a woman. In another flower bed they found the trunk of a woman. In a third flower bed they found the legs and arms of a woman. In a fourth flower bed they found the torso of a woman. The trunk was found in a flower bed, from which the plants had been removed they found, about two feet under ground, the mutilated head and unjointed arm of a woman. In another flower bed they found the trunk of a woman. In a third flower bed they found the legs and arms of a woman. In a fourth flower bed they found the torso of a woman.

A search of McEwan's room revealed several razors, apparently unused for some time, and an axe recently washed but still showing slight blood stains. McDougall was unable to give any information as to McEwan's deed, or the disposition of the body, for he was working at the time on the opposite side of the house, as was shown by the fresh turned earth. He believes that when he knocked at 6 o'clock McEwan was carrying up the body, as McEwan's voice indicated that he was wide awake. As far as can be judged from the mutilated remains of the body, McEwan's victim was robust, of medium height, and about 30 or 35 years old. Her clothing was well made and of good material. It is reported after the news of the murder got out that McEwan was "Jack the Ripper" and at the time of "Ripper" murders he was absent from Glasgow, but then reports are contradicted. McEwan was engaged to marry a respectable girl, who is a maid in a Glasgow family. The mother, when she heard of the murder, supposed that her daughter was the victim and ran to West Lodge. She could not identify the clothing as her daughter's, however, and this evening the girl was found. The police say that McEwan had little money and will soon be captured. The woman's body has been buried together as well as possible and now lies at the morgue, awaiting identification.

EMMETT DALTON WILL RECOVER.

He Is Taken From Coffeyville to the Independence Jail.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Oct. 11.—Emmett Dalton was taken to Independence to be held this morning by Sheriff Callahan without any objection by the citizens. William went along. Now that he is gone the citizens feel relieved, as his presence here kept the town full of undesirable persons, who were apt to be trouble. He is better, and it is now thought that he will recover. The special officers investigating the raid claim to have found a relay of horses, left by the Daltons with friends at Double creek and in their escape.

WOCOLER DAILY STILL ON TRIAL.

Damaging Evidence Given in Yesterday's Proceedings.

TOLSON, Oct. 11.—This has been a day of sensations in the trial of Congressman John Dalrymple, charged with hoodlums. The principal witnesses were David Robinson, Jr., president of the Toledo electric railway, and George A. Russell, stenographer in the city solicitor's office. Robinson testified that Dalrymple came to his office and in his hand a "black ring" asked for $10,000 as the price for preventing the passage of an anti-Robinson street railway ordinance. Robinson's story corroborated their father's story.

PROUD AS A QUEEN

A Million Persons Throng New York City

TO WITNESS THE BIG DISPLAY

The Spectacle One of the Most Brilliant and Imposing Ever Witnessed Anywhere on Earth.

New York, Oct. 11.—A million or more people began to move toward the river and bay as early as 9 o'clock this morning, when the most important event of the Columbian celebration—the naval parade—occurred. Fifty thousand strangers came to town last night and this morning and joined the 100,000 who arrived yesterday, and every street, lined with bunting, presented a scene of kaleidoscopic animation. Eight miles of water front on the North river side of the city was lined with spacious stands, black with people, to view the marine spectacle, and something like 800 excursion steamers and tugs, gayly decorated, carried nearly 75,000 people.

A Million View the Parade. By the time the parade got under way something like a million and a half of people were waiting for a view of the spectacle. The scene in the harbor was the most picturesque ever seen in American waters. There were so many boats of so many varied types, and they were so close together that from a distance they seemed to form a pontoon bridge from shore to shore, prepared for the passage of a great monarch. The equipments of the vessels were almost concealed by flags, while the brass work shone like burnished gold.

SHOT BY A DESPERADO. A Husband Interferes to Save His Wife and Is Killed.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 11.—In Birmingham county, Paul Horn, a notorious desperado, last night had a row with William Rosenberg about the price of a suit of clothes. Horn assaulted Rosenberg's wife with a buggy whip, beating her unmercifully while she stood by in her arms. When Rosenberg interfered Horn shot and killed him. The woman was in a delicate condition and will die. Horn fled, pursued by citizens with dogs. He was captured today and put in jail at Folsdale, but afterward taken to Linden jail to prevent lynching.

HUMANITY'S DEPREVED HUMANITY. John Spence, a Brutal Father, Exchanges His Daughters for Rent.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 11.—John B. Spence and John Weaver were arrested today on charges by Humane Agent O'Brien. Spence, he alleged, rented a house from Weaver in Elliptonboro and not being able to pay rent, he gave Weaver his two daughters, ranging in age from ten to sixteen years. Weaver took the girls' home with him and the four of them have been living together for almost a week. The girls tell a story of shocking brutality. The accused gave bail for a hearing.

IS HE MURDERED?

The Disappearance of Capt. Simpson, of the Bruce, Unexplained.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Capt. Melvin J. Simpson, of the schooner Bruce, has been missing since the 4th inst., and his disappearance has attracted the attention of the police. The schooner Bruce came into Chicago on October 4, with a non-union crew, and after tying up at the docks Captain Simpson left the boat to go down town, and has not been seen since.

Fought for Life and Honor.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Josephine Simmons, a pretty 19-year-old daughter of Frank Simmons, head engineer at Grindick's brewery tonight, was found by her mother in the kitchen of her home, with a knife in her throat cut from ear to ear, her head nearly severed from her body. The house had been evidently entered by burglars, who, finding the girl alone, attempted to criminally assault her, and fearing that she might disclose their deed, killed her. The fight for life and honor had taken place in the kitchen, for that room was spattered with blood. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the dastardly crime.

Failure of a Kansas Bank.

SPRINGFIELD, Kas., Oct. 11.—The state bank of Arkison, this county, suspended payments Saturday and the assets are reported to be only nominal. County Treasurer E. R. Ragland has over $10,000 belonging to the county deposited in this bank and made a demand for the money Saturday but was refused. His term of office expired yesterday and an attachment suit was begun on his behalf to protect, as far as possible, the interests of the county. It is more than probable that criminal suits will be instituted.

Coal Mine Explosion.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 11.—By an explosion of gas in a coal mine at Durango, in the southwestern part of the state, E. G. McClosky, ex-member of the legislature was instantly killed and three other men probably fatally injured.

Death of the Monitor's Engineer.

TRINIDAD, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Intelligence has been received of the death at Charleston, S. C., of George C. Geer, who was engineer of the Monitor in the engagement with the Merrimack during the late war.

Increase of Gold.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Since the 30th of September there has been a net increase in gold and gold bullion in the treasury of $300,000, making the total amount of gold now held $122,401,829. The net surplus in the treasury has also increased, being now $14,500,000. Custom receipts at New York during the last ten days have aggregated $2,964,202, slightly in excess of the amount for the corresponding period of last year.

Election at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Chattanooga today elected seven democrats out of eight democratic candidates, securing control of the city government for the first time in its history. This fact is taken as significant of the result of the political election. All eastern Tennessee has heretofore been republican.

Attain in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 11.—Chief Justice of the democratic committee at Birmingham, the Tuesday following and at Birmingham, Wednesday, the preparations are being made to receive him.

Sally B Dies at the End of a Heat—Yesterday's Races.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 11.—This was the sixth day of the trotting races. The weather perfect, the track fast, the attendance good and the sport excellent. The unfinished 2:17 class of yesterday was won by Nellie Mason in good time. The 2:16 pace was a six heat affair. Storm, the favorite, finally winning. Some time ago Burke shipped several car loads of cattle to South Omaha, which were confiscated by the defendants as officers of the Wyoming Cattleman's association, on the ground that the cattle were stolen. A rule of the association permitted confiscation under the circumstances alleged. Burke repudiated the cattle and brings additional suit for damages. He denies the recent "rustler" troubles, and alleges it is the policy of his cattle owners to prevent on the smaller range like Burke, who buy of small owners. He alleges a conspiracy has been formed for this purpose, and when shipments are made cattle kings follow the small dealers to make

INDIANA'S APPOINTMENT.

The Decision of the Judges in the Cases to Be Given Today.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 11.—Early this morning Clerk Sweeney of the supreme court took to the judges' consultation room the briefs and affidavits filed in the appointments suits, and during the entire day the subject was under consideration by the judges. They did not adjourn until after 6 o'clock this evening. Such a prolonged session has not been held by the court for years, and it is believed is a radical disagreement among the members as to the course to be pursued regarding the attorney general's motion to dismiss the case. It is believed that Judge Elliott favors the dismissal of the suit, thus sustaining the attorney general. A decision is expected tomorrow, and the most intense interest is being manifested in what the court will say. It is believed that written opinions will accompany the decision.

POPULISTS IN TROUBLE.

The Arrest of Two Alabama Officers May Lead to a Fight.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 11.—The excitement occasioned by the arrest of the Bullock county officers yesterday is still intense. Judge Fraser and Clerk Pickett are in the city yet; also a large crowd of third party people from Bullock at whose instance the arrests were made. The latter announced this morning their intention of applying to the United States for a writ of mandamus to compel Judge Fraser to appoint third party people for the November elections. Fraser and Pickett have retained attorneys and are ready for trial Friday. The incident is the sensation of the campaign.

Neither Are Willing.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 11.—A conference has been in progress all day between Chris Magee and the leaders of both republican factions and the third party, but no agreement was reached looking to the union of the factions. Both sides are firm and will not be put down. Leaders on both sides say that the republican faction and people's party cannot be united in Alabama, because nobody will sacrifice themselves.

ALL WILL BE TRIED

The Grand Jury of Pittsburg Returns True Indictments

FOR TREASON AND MURDER

Against the Leaders of the Strikers—The Pinkertons and Mill Owners—Contents of the Bills.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 11.—The grand jury today returned true bills in the treason cases against the Homestead strikers, and also in the murder, conspiracy and aggravated riot cases against the Carnegie officials and Pinkerton detectives. Chief Justice Paxson of the supreme court occupied the bench with Judge Kennedy. When the grand jury filed in there was a large number of spectators present. The indictments for treason involve thirty-one defendants. Hugh O'Donnell, John G. Luckie, David Lynch, Thomas J. Crawford, Henry Bayard, T. W. Brown, George Colgan, John Coyne, Jack Clifford and Dennis M. Cash, are among the most prominent. The charges of murder against H. C. Frick and other Carnegie officials are for the killing of George W. Rutter, John E. Morris, Joseph Sotak and Silas Wayne, whose deaths resulted from the riot. The true bills are against H. C. Frick, F. T. Lovjoy, Robert Pinkerton, William Pinkerton, J. A. Potter, W. S. Corey and others.

The Conspiracy Cases.

In the conspiracy cases H. C. Frick, George Lauder, H. M. Carry, Leishman, Otis, Lovjoy, L. C. Phillips, Childs, J. A. Potter, J. F. Dorey, McConnell, the Pinkertons, Cooper, Beddel, Frederick Bremer, Burt and Hinde are the defendants. In the aggravated riot cases true bills are returned against Frick, Curry, Leishman, Lovjoy, L. C. Phillips, Dorey, McConnell, Cooper, Beddel, Bremer, Burt and Hinde.

The indictment against H. C. Frick and others in the murder cases are separate, making four in all. The prosecutor in the murder cases is Hugh Ross, against whom are charges for murder, treason, conspiracy and aggravated riot. The indictment against the Carnegie officials in the conspiracy cases is a lengthy document, comprising ten type written pages. Among other things it sets forth concerning H. C. Frick and the others named is the following:

Contents of the Bills. That they did unlawfully, falsely and maliciously conspire, combine, confederate and agree together to disturb the peace and independence of the state of Pennsylvania by the use of labor of diverse persons employed by the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and then and there upon their steel manufacturing and cease work and operations therein and thereupon to convey and caused to be sent 200 men and upwards, armed with guns, revolvers, pistols, knives and other deadly weapons, to overawe, intimidate and frighten diverse persons in the said township of Midlin, who were then lawfully employed by the said Carnegie Steel company. To invade the said township of Midlin and to attack the said persons who were then lawfully before employed, and to shoot off and discharge the said guns and other deadly weapons against the bodies of the said persons who were then lawfully before employed by the said Carnegie Steel company, limited.

In regard to the fight on the morning of the said bill, says the defendants "did counsel and advise the shooting."

The bill in the aggravated riot cases against the Carnegie officials differs very little from that in the conspiracy action except that it specifies that, in pursuance to the alleged conspiracy, the alleged unlawful and riotous acts were committed.

There are 121 encampments in Michigan with a total membership of 3,392.

SLOTTED FOR SNEERING.

Convict Miller Assails His Contractor at State Prison.

JACKSON, Oct. 11.—Samuel W. Phillips, owner of the prison broom contract, and who was partner of William Chidley who was murdered with a hammer by Henry Hackman two months ago, was struck in the back of the head with a club this morning and is being taken to the floor of the shop. His head was badly cut, but it is believed the injury is not serious, although he was taken home.

The convict who committed the assault was Michael Mullin, serving a ten-year sentence from Delta county for assault with intent to rob. When questioned as to why he assaulted the contractor he replied:

"He sneered at me."

The facts about the convicts on the broom contract are that there are twenty-five here, many of whom have served long sentences. They are the hardest lot in the prison, and no doubt are more or less insane from abuse self-inflicted, or were afflicted with mania when they came here.

Mullen's attack must have been prompted by something besides rational feelings. He was given 175 blows with the spatter on his naked person and placed in a solitary cell.

UNIVERSALISTS AT LANSING.
